

Indianapolis Racquet Club's Jeff Rodefeld Inducted into IHSTeCA 2025 Hall of Fame

INDIANAPOLIS, IN — February 7, 2025 — The Indiana High School Tennis Coaches Association (IHSTeCA) celebrated the induction of the 2025 Hall of Fame class on February 7, 2025, at its 33rd annual ceremony. This year's inductees include exceptional players, coaches, and contributors who have profoundly influenced high school tennis in Indiana.

Among the 2025 inductees is Jeff Rodefeld, honored for his outstanding contributions as the Director of Retail Operations at the award-winning Indianapolis Racquet Club Pro Shop. Over the past 29 years, Rodefeld has been a dedicated leader and member of the Management Team at IRC, transforming the corporation's retail operations into a nationally recognized tennis retailer. His involvement extends beyond IRC, having served as the USTA Adult League Coordinator for the Central Indiana Tennis Association and playing an instrumental role in building the annual IHSTeCA Coaches Convention into a first class event. His love for the sport began at age 10 when his father introduced him to tennis. This early exposure led to a lifelong passion for the sport, and Rodefeld's leadership at IRC has had a significant impact on the high school tennis community and has played a pivotal role in the growth of tennis throughout the state of Indiana.

In addition to Rodefeld, the following individuals from the Indianapolis Racquet Club were inducted in previous years and have made significant contributions to high school tennis in Indiana:
